

Homework (Thursday 14th May 2026)

Name:

One warm morning, a hare laughed at a slow-moving tortoise. "You will never win a race," the hare said. The tortoise calmly replied, "Let's see." They agreed to race to the big oak tree. As soon as the race began, the hare ran far ahead. Feeling confident, he decided to rest under a shady bush. The tortoise kept walking slowly without stopping. When the hare finally woke up, he saw the tortoise reaching the tree. The tortoise had won because he never gave up.

Questions:
