

PFA KEY STAGE TWO AUTUMN DISCO

Wednesday 13th November 2024

The PFA are holding a disco for the Key Stage Two children on Wednesday 13th November in St Barnabas Hall from 5.30 until 6.30 pm. Tickets will cost £3.00 and will include a drink and a packet of crisps. Entrance to the disco is limited only to those children who have a ticket. Tickets will be issued by Tuesday 12th November. Please ensure that the reply slip below is filled in completely and includes the name of the person collecting your child/children with a contact number.

If you wish to pay by cheque, please make cheques payable to 'Bickleigh Down PFA'. Tickets can now be purchased through <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/bickleigh-down-pfa> or by scanning the QR code opposite.

All reply slips should be returned by Friday 8th November.

Please be aware of the following:

1. Children should be dropped off and collected promptly from the entrance indicated on their ticket; this will be either the main office entrance or St Barnabas Hall.
2. Children should only be collected by the named person on the reply slip.
3. Children are not allowed to bring mobile phones or electronic games to the disco.
4. Coats are best left with parents and not taken into the hall.

There will be candy floss and popcorn available for purchase in the hall during the disco. The children will need to bring money for this on the night (maximum £2.00).
